

Minnesota Board of Behavioral Health and Therapy

LPCC Application Amendment Form

Directions:

If you have submitted an application for professional clinical counselor licensure (LPCC) and find or decide that you cannot be licensed via the licensure method you selected (ex. general method, conversion method, or reciprocity method) you may complete this form if you wish to change the licensure method under which you are applying. Additionally, you are required to complete the corresponding application for licensure, however no additional fees will be collected. (If you have not yet applied for licensure do not use this form; please complete and submit the appropriate licensure method with the appropriate application and initial license fees.)

I, _____, request that the Minnesota Board of Behavioral Health and Therapy amend my LPCC application submitted under Minnesota Statutes section:

- ☐ 148B.5301, subds. 1 and 2: application general method
- ☐ 148B.5301, subd. 2: application by conversion
- ☐ 148B.56: application by reciprocity

to be processed from this date forward under Minnesota Statutes section:

- ☐ 148B.5301, subds. 1 and 2: application general method
 - ☐ Check here if you need an application to take the National Clinical Mental Health Counselor Exam (NCMHCE)
- ☐ 148B.5301, subd. 2: application by conversion
- ☐ 148B.56: application by reciprocity: List State and License: _____

Signature

Date

*Please note: All applicants are responsible for reading the statutory provisions for licensure before selecting the statutory provision they wish to apply under. The Board's current statutes and rules are available on it's website: www.bbht.state.mn.us.